Background Information

CIRBP, also named as A18HNRNP and CIRP, is a cold-inducible mRNA binding protein that plays a protective role in the genotoxic stress response by stabilizing transcripts of genes involved in cell survival[PMID: 19158277]. CIRBP is also involved in cap-independent translation upon moderate cold-shock. It acts as a translational activator. CIRBP is a suppressive rather stimulatory effect on proliferation[PMID: 19777567]. CIRBP can translocate from nucleus to cytoplasm under stresses such as UV irradiation or heat shock. Suppression of CIRBP increased the apoptotic cell population of neural stem cells at moderate low temperature[PMID: 20735994]. This antibody (Catalog# 10209-2-AP) is a rabbit polyclonal antibody raised against the full-length CIRBP of human origin.
